What does it mean to build peace?

The 2025 World Affairs Seminar, Peacebuilding: Creating Lasting Change, will empower delegates to explore solutions to global, national, and local challenges. By fostering a holistic approach to peace, participants will address barriers to opportunity, equality, and justice, turning community efforts into global impact.

We are looking for:

- U.S. and international students between the ages of 15-18 years of age
- Students in good academic standing entering their sophomore, junior or senior year.
- Students interested in global issues and building a strong portfolio for the future.

Interested in attending?

Start by sharing this information to your parents, teacher, guidance counselor or principal! Let them know you are interested!

What if I can't afford it?

Many schools may have funding available for these types of trips—ask your teacher or guidance counselor. If not, consider reaching out to local service organizations like Rotary, Kiwanis, or Lions.

Many clubs offer support through applications or direct contact.
